COMPREHENSION

Directions: In this section you have five short passages. After each passage, you will find some questions based on the passage. First, read a passage and answer the questions based on it. You are required to select your answers based on the contents of the passage and opinion of the author only.

PASSAGE—I

A little man beside me was turning over the pages of a magazine quickly and nervously. Opposite me there was a young mother who was trying to restrain her son from making a noise. The boy had obviously grown weary of waiting. He had placed an ashtray on the floor and was making aeroplane-noises as he waved a pencil in his hands. Near him, an old man was fast asleep, snoring quickly to himself and the boy's mother was afraid that sooner or later her son would wake the gentleman up.

- The noise was made by
 - the old man
 - the aeroplane
 - the little man
 - the boy
- The person who was the least disturbed was the
 - observer
 - son
 - old man
 - little man
- The factor common to all the people was that they were all
 - watching a film
 - waiting for something
 - looking at the little boy's playfulness
 - reading magazine
- Among those present the one who appeared to be the most bored was the
 - child
 - little man
 - old man
 - mother

PASSAGE—II

A man had two blacksmiths for his neighbours. Their names were Pengu and Shengu. The man was greatly troubled by the noise of their hammers. He decided to talk to them. The next day he called both of them and offered Rs. 100 each, if they found new huts for themselves. They took the money and agreed to find new huts for themselves. The next morning he woke up again to the sound of their hammers. He went out to see why the blacksmiths hadn't found new huts and he discovered that Pengu and Shengu had kept their promise. They had exchanged their huts.

- The man was troubled because
 - the blacksmiths always fought with each others
 - the blacksmiths' hammers made a lot of noise
 - he was afraid of blacksmiths
 - the blacksmiths did not do their work properly
- The man went out of his house because
 - he wanted to fight with the blacksmiths
 - he wanted to ask the blacksmiths to stop the noise
 - he wanted to find out why they hadn't found new huts
 - he wanted his money back from the blacksmiths
- The man gave them money because
 - the blacksmiths were poor
 - the blacksmiths had asked him for money
 - he did not want them to make a noise
 - he wanted them to find new huts
- The man came to know that
 - the blacksmiths were not in their huts
 - the blacksmiths had exchanged huts
 - the blacksmiths were going away
 - the blacksmiths had not kept their promise
